INDIVIDUALS WISHING TO ADDRESS COUNCIL

Vic Cales was present to discuss the Wauseon Beautification Team. He gave a summary of what the program was and how it benefited the City. He shared that the program was founded two years ago and now has one hundred and twenty high school students involved. He is excited to continue growing this program to impact more students and the City of Wauseon.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Buildings and Grounds: Councilor Stickley gave a brief summary on the April 20, 2021 Buildings and Grounds meeting. He discussed the current project they are working on at Hass Door. They are constructing a building addition and a new employee parking lot. Hass Door would like to add sidewalks and a crosswalk for their employees, this will require a curb cut. They are also looking to add streetlights. In addition, Councilor Stickley discussed hiring Daniel Dunlap as a contract employee as a Zoning/Maintenance Code inspector.

Motion to accept the Buildings and Grounds recommendation to allow Haas Door to add sidewalks, crosswalks, and lights on city property moved by Council Stickley and seconded by Councilor Griggs.
